

Teaching Writing Skills All Year Long

With resources for Grades K-2

PLAN YOUR YEARLONG WRITING CURRICULUM

Online Workshop Overview

After you've devised a plan to launch your writer's workshop during the first weeks of school, the next step is to look ahead toward the rest of the year. This online workshop is designed to guide K-2 teachers through the planning of a yearlong writing curriculum. This includes determining mini-lesson instruction, identifying frequent assignments, and communicating assessment feedback all within the three major types of writing—opinion/persuasive/argumentative, informative/expository, and narrative.

Workshop Topics:

- Define a "writing unit": its length, its focuses, and its final product(s).
- Discover how often to "publish" a final draft and how frequently students should produce first drafts.
- Identify procedures for selecting priority writing standards to target within each writing unit.
- Learn strategies for teaching a writing skill over multiple days to deepen student understanding and gradually release responsibility to the students.
- Learn effective ways to integrate convention/grammar skills throughout the year.
- Learn how to incorporate mentor text examples and kid-friendly rubrics within a unit.
- Receive suggestions for grading student writing and assessing students' understanding of a genre.

"Everything presented has been applicable to my kindergarten classroom, and I can already feel my confidence as a writing teacher growing! It makes so much sense!"

Meredith Wolff • Teacher at Camden Primary School, Camden, OH

Total time to complete:

5-6 hours; (allotted time to complete the online workshop:
30 days)

Instructor:

Kristina Smekens
President & Lead Consultant for Smekens Education Solutions, Inc.

When you complete the online workshop, you'll be able to:

- ✓ Organize grade-level writing standards and grammar skills to be taught within any writing unit.
- ✓ Embed the 6 Traits of Writing throughout the school year as you spiral through specific skills that are unique to each trait.
- ✓ Speed up or slow down a unit to meet the needs of your writers.
- ✓ Target isolated skills within intermittent "maintenance" mini-lessons throughout the year.
- ✓ Assess mastery of writing skills via grades or standards-based reporting.
- ✓ Teach writing with confidence and intentionality.

Top questions teachers ask about launching writing

- How do I find time in my daily schedule for writing?
- How can I teach writing to students who can only draw?
- How do I integrate my writing standards within my writing units?
- How do I decide which skills I need to teach for each unit?
- How many times should students write in the same genre?
- How does grammar instruction fit into the writer's workshop?
- How often should I offer free choice versus prompted writing?
- How can I grade/assess their writing more efficiently?

Kristina Smekens provides the answers to these questions and many more!

Your handbook for teaching writing

The first seven sections of this resource will help you start (launch) your writer's workshop. They include procedural lessons and strategies essential for establishing classroom management and building writer independence. Depending on your grade level, this "launch" could take up to six weeks to complete.

Once you've launched your writing instruction, use sections 8-13 to help you plan the rest of your year. There are more than 70 additional writing lessons that target the skills students need at different developmental stages of writing—drawing, labeling, listing, sentence writing, etc.

ABOUT THE PRESENTER

Kristina Smekens

Kristina Smekens is a full-time literacy consultant who has built a reputation for using enthusiasm, humor, and common sense to equip K-12 educators with practical, demystifying strategies for teaching reading and writing.

As president and lead consultant for Smekens Education, Kristina is constantly developing new strategies for helping teachers to meet the demands of today's College and Career-Ready Standards. She and her two full-time associates share those strategies with teachers across the United States and beyond through on-site school trainings, regional seminars, and an always-growing pool of print, digital, and video resources.

A PRESENTER

Kristina has a gift for making the complex seem simple—for showing teachers how to meet the needs of readers and writers by bridging the gap between education research and practical, classroom-tested strategies that work. When she presents at state and national conferences, teachers flock to her sessions because they know Kristina will share strategies they can use in their own classrooms the very next day.

But beyond providing teachers with practical classroom techniques, Kristina is also a master at giving educators an injection of motivation and encouragement to help them return to their classrooms with the confidence and excitement they need to execute change. In fact, more than 17,000 educators rely on a monthly "shot in the arm" from Kristina as subscribers to her monthly email newsletter, "Big Ideas."

AN AUTHOR

Well known for offering innovative ideas, Kristina has created more than 50 "Smekens Originals," a compilation of books, guides, and classroom tools designed to help teachers implement best-practice literacy strategies. Among the most popular of these resources are her best-selling books, Launching the Writer's Workshop: Grades K-2 and Grades 3-12. Other popular publications include The Trait Mate: 6-Traits Starter Lessons, Connecting Comprehension & Composition, Sing & Comprehend, Close Reading Questions for Literature, Close Reading Questions for Informational Text, Trait Trackers, and Serving Up Synthesis. Additionally, Kristina is the author of Trait-Based Writing: Lessons and Activities (Scholastic, 2009).

A CRAFTER

Beyond books and physical teacher tools, Kristina has also created a library of more than 50 on-demand professional learning videos that are utilized by teachers around the world. With topics ranging from "Building Kid-Friendly Writing Rubrics" to "Achieving a Close Reading," each of Kristina's "webPD" videos uses a seminar-style format to capture her energy and enthusiasm while conveying her teacher-friendly ideas.

BACKGROUND

Kristina earned her BA in English and education at Michigan State University. Prior to her full-time consulting career, she was an accomplished high school English and journalism teacher in Michigan and Indiana. A leader in state and national scholastic journalism endeavors, Kristina authored a journalism textbook and teachers' guide for Walsworth Publishing in 2002.

Over the past 12 years, she has been blessed to work and learn with hundreds of schools and thousands of teachers throughout the Midwest. She was awarded the Excellence in Reading Award by the Indiana State Reading Association in 2013 for her contributions to literacy in Indiana.

Kristina lives in Warren, Indiana with her husband and business partner Brady, their three teenage children, and a rambunctious family dog named Buddy.

"Kristina just takes the guess work out of everything to make it ALL make sense!"

Nicki King • Teacher,
Union Furnace Elementary,
Logan, OH

"I love how you made it abundantly clear the why and how to hone in with intentionality on the issues my kids are having rather than giving skimpy instruction on a plethora of topics just to say 'we covered that.' Now, I feel like I can create a road map that will make sense because it will be specifically tailored to their needs."

Priscilla Peterson .
Teacher, Westfield Middle School Westfield, IN

"I love the way Kristina presents the information with so much enthusiasm. I love how she builds on what she's taught before."

Kristen Smith .
Teacher, Gilmer County High School, Glenville, WV

"After 33 years of teaching, I still am drawn back into Kristina's workshops because they are research-based, standards-focused, and very interactive."

Katie Cadle • Teacher,
Paoli Community Schools,
Paoli, IN
